Research Administration News

from the Office of Research and Project Administration (ORPA)

New federal funding restrictions in 2024

New federal rules regarding malign foreign government talent recruitment programs (MFGTRPs) as defined in the CHIPS and Science Act of 2022. Starting in 2024:

- University researchers who participate in MFGTRPs will not be eligible for federal research funding.
- Federal agencies will require University researchers to certify personally that they are not members of a MFGTRP in the proposal submission and annually thereafter throughout the duration of the award.
